

Environmental Policy

Reason 55 Holdings Pty Ltd Environmental management system has been structured to comply with the requirements of ISO 14001:2015

Reason 55 Holdings Pty Ltd have identified objectives and targets, and assessed the impact in our nature of industry that can be an environmental hazard, we focused on surfaces, exposure to toxic air and noises and we insure that we have control measures in place to manage and reduce the risk on the environmental impact of these hazards identified, and will be reviewed on a continuous bases to be effective and to ensure the efficiency of the Environmental Policy and continuous improvements as per the ISO 14001:2015 standards and expectations.

Reason 55 Holdings Pty Ltd strives and is committed to the following:

- Identifying and assessing environmental implications that our operations might cause, including noise, surface
- Implementing preventative measures, but to focus mainly to eliminate the damage that can be harmful to the environment.
- Associated impacts in a responsible manner to a controllable effect that the operations might have on the environment.
- Constantly monitoring and reviewing the Environmental Policy.

Reason 55 Holdings Pty Ltd will ensure a process for continual improvement by means of the following:

- Reducing emissions and effluent.
- Minimising waste general source and the prevention of pollution.
- Rehabilitation of land that is disturbed in the cause of any Affordable Rigging operations.
- Utilizing non- renewable recourses efficiently and conservatively.

Compiled By: M Botha

Revision 001/22

Approved By: Marang Mamahlodi

SHEQ Manager

CEO (16.1) 